

Shoot The Lobster

540 W 29th Street

New York, NY 10001

212-560-0670

contact@shootthelobster.com

www.shootthelobster.com

Christofer Amel

November 29, 2012 – January 12, 2013

Artists reception: November 29, 6 – 8 PM

Shoot the Lobster is pleased to announce a solo exhibition of works by Christofer Amel.

1. Can you still like it if it's not perfect?

Oh yeah. Sure.

2. Is it what you want it to be?

Uh, rarely.

3. If you don't like it you can just turn it into something you like?

Yes.

4. Nothing's impossible?

No. Only the impossible is worth doing. It's something I heard Jutta Koether say.

5. Do you know how to do it?

No.

6. Have you had any experience?

Yes.

7. Is there something that you noticed about your art that you can fix?

Maybe.

8. Have you ever looked at something that might be turned into art?

All the time.

9. In your mind can anything be art?

No. Because anything can't be art. Only certain things can be art.

10. Try to make everything your way. And be happy with who you are.

No. Sometimes it's not about you. Sometime it's about you have to change who you are because you're doing something wrong. You have a responsibility to other people. Everyone.

Those were tough.

For further information please contact 212-560-0670 or contact@shootthelobster.com